

Wisconsin Public Utility Institute

Jordan Hemaïdan
Michael Best & Friedrich, LLP

Jordan Hemaïdan is the leader of the Energy and Sustainability Industry Group and a partner who practices extensively in energy, agriculture and construction law. He has provided representation in siting and certification cases for large agricultural facilities, power generation facilities, electric transmission lines, natural gas distribution projects, and private energy facilities. Jordan is also active in the renewable energy space, providing representation on transactional and regulatory aspects of renewable energy development and more recently on carbon trading issues. He is admitted to practice in Wisconsin and in the United States

District Court for the Western District of Wisconsin.

Jordan has been acknowledged in the area of communications and energy law since 2006 by The Best Lawyers in America, published by Woodward/White, Inc. He is also recognized as a "Super Lawyer" in the area of Construction and Surety by Super Lawyers Magazine, a Law & Politics publication.