ADRIENNE EHRHARDT

Michael Best & Friedrich LLP

Adrienne Ehrhardt is Chair of the Privacy and Cybersecurity group at Michael Best & Friedrich LLP. Her practice centers on counseling clients on complex privacy, data management, and cybersecurity matters. Her extensive background includes experience with issues relating to the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA), Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA), and the European Union's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), as well as responding to data breaches and creating privacy programs.

Prior to joining Michael Best, Adrienne served as the in-house lead attorney in privacy and data protection at CUNA Mutual Group. She also served as Associate General Counsel at Land's End, Inc., where she managed litigation, counseled the company on internal legal matters, and negotiated and drafted a variety of transactional agreements. Previously, she was a member of the commercial litigation practices of two international business law firms and began her career as a judicial law clerk in United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois. She received her J.D. from the Columbia University School of Law.
