SCOTT SMITH

Madison Gas and Electric

Scott Smith serves as assistant vice president of business and regulatory strategy for Madison Gas and Electric Company, focusing on issues related to the company's growth and opportunities to better serve its customers in an evolving energy environment. Prior to joining Madison Gas and Electric, Scott was director of regulatory affairs at Alliant Energy, focusing on the company's Wisconsin-based utility, Wisconsin Power and Light, as well as FERC and MISO issues for both Alliant Energy utilities. Before joining Alliant Energy, Scott served as chief of staff of the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin. Prior to being appointed to that position, Smith was the Commission's administrator of the division of water, compliance, and consumer affairs. Scott also served as Wisconsin Governor Tommy Thompson's deputy communications director and as deputy director of the Wisconsin state office in Washington, DC. Before joining state service, Scott served as a legislative assistant to Congressman Steve Gunderson. Scott received his bachelor's degree in political science from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, attended graduate school at the Johns Hopkins University, and received his MBA from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.
